Thank you for your letter of 6 June on behalf of

Normally we do not employ individuals who are not American citizens. However, in view of [redacted] background, we will give his case further consideration. As a first step, please have him complete the attached forms for application for employment and Personal History Statements and return two copies of each to the Central Intelligence Agency, 2430 E Street, NW, Washington 25, D.C., attention: Chief, Personnel Division. Upon receipt of the completed forms, we will determine whether we have a suitable vacancy for which he might be considered and contact him directly after such determination has been made.
